October 2021

From the President

Last month, CREW Charlotte was fortunate to have twenty-one CREW members attend the CREW Network Convention in-person in Las Vegas, Nevada and another five CREW Charlotte members attend Convention virtually. It was an uplifting and gratifying week complete with networking, making new business connections, forward-thinking industry content, inspiring keynote speakers, and a celebration with our fellow CREW members! It was also great connecting with our first-time CREW Charlotte attendees.

I am excited to share the following updates and upcoming events announced during the CREW Network Convention available to all CREW members:

- On September 30th, CREW Network launched the CRE Pledge for Action, an industry-first. The initiative is CEO-driven to advance women and elevate actions that encourage greater DEI in commercial real estate. All industry CEOs are invited to sign the pledge.
- CREW Network has launched applications for CREW Councils, a new and unique forum for members to engage with peers at the global level for business connections, potential deals and projects, knowledge exchange, and insight sharing. Apply for one of the four 2022 councils (CEOs, Emerging Leaders, Industrial, Multifamily) by November 30th.
- As part of CREW's ongoing DEI initiatives, CREW Network will host a listening tour themed "You Belong With CREW" in the fall. Dates and details will be announced soon.
- Join the CREW Network New Member Meet and Greet via Zoom on November 19th to maximize your membership benefits, learn about available resources, and to meet other global CREW members.
- Register now for the 2022 CREW Network Leadership Certificate program. Participate in three specialized leadership development conferences with industry training courses throughout the year, led by expert instructors from Harvard and MIT that teach leading principles in executive leadership and negotiations.

At the CREW Network Convention, keynote speaker Sarah Thomas, the first female NFL referee and official, told the audience during her presentation "Your windshield is bigger than your rearview mirror. Focus on the future, not what's behind you." Another one of the fantastic CREW Network keynote speakers, Linda Alvarado, founder and owner of Alvarado Construction and co-owner of the Colorado Rockies, stated "'Networking' is only one letter away from 'Not-working'." Now is the time to think about your future and professional aspirations by looking at all the upcoming CREW events in 2022. Invest in yourself and renew your CREW membership. You don't want to miss out on any of these great networking and leadership opportunities.

Highlights

Join CREW Charlotte and SafeAlliance for a Thank-a-thon on November 2nd to support Safe Alliance. Volunteers will help contact Safe Alliance supporters to thank them for participating in the Breakfast of Hope and share agency updates. Staff will provide all volunteers with a brief training, script, and call list, Click here to volunteer.
