FROM THE PRESIDENT

Following our monthly luncheon last Tuesday, we hit our Chapter goal for the CREW Network Foundation Ask with 100% board and leadership participation, over $1,000 donated, and even more impressive, over 50% of our membership made a personal donation to the Foundation. A very big thank you to Marie McLucas of Primax Properties and her entire Network Committee for all of their efforts. On behalf of Marie and her committee, I would like to thank each one of you that made a personal donation. The CREW Network Foundation is the only foundation that is helping women in commercial real estate. What a great feeling it is for our chapter to be able to pay it forward to the next generation of women. To date, the donations made by our members have raised over $7,000 towards our scholarship endowment with the Foundation.

Last year, one of our local students, Maggie Hill, was the recipient of a $5,000 scholarship from the CREW Network Foundation. This year we are so excited to announce, that we have two winners from our area. Nikki McLucas from Western Carolina University and Auja Little from UNC Charlotte will both receive a $5,000 scholarship, along with a paid internship with CBRE, student membership with our chapter and a registration to the 2014 CREW Convention. These women were in a pool of applications from across the US and Canada and were chosen among the few for this honor. We should all be very proud of them and honored to know that our personal donations will support these young ladies as they begin their careers in commercial real estate.

HIGHLIGHTS

2014 CREW Network Convention & Marketplace registration now open You've heard about the incredible speaker lineup, and now you can reserve your spot in Miami. The brochure is now available on the website (and will be mailed out next week), and you can sign up online or download the registration form. New this year, you must be registered for the convention to reserve your room at the host hotel. View the convention
