ALL AMERICAN RELOCATION RECEIVES TOP HONORS FOR QUALITY SERVICE FROM MAYFLOWER

ST. LOUIS (November 10, 2015) – All American Relocation, an agent of Mayflower in Charlotte, North Carolina, received the company’s President’s Quality Award, which recognizes the number one ranked quality service performer in the carrier’s U.S. family of affiliated moving agencies. Mayflower CEO Jim Powers made the announcement at the company’s recent annual convention in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The President’s Quality Award recipient is selected from an elite group of top service providers who are designated as Customer Choice award winners. It is also based on quality service performance measured through the eyes of their customers via post-move surveys. The award clearly designates the winner as the best of the best. In earning the President’s Quality award, All American Relocation met all Mayflower standards of performance and was ranked number one overall out of the agents in the United States.

During his recognition of All American Relocation Powers said, “Time and again, All American Relocation has been one of the top quality agents in the Mayflower system. Some of the reasons for this success are the leadership and that all team members keep customer satisfaction a top priority.”
