From the President

Adrienne Bain

Did you know that CREW Charlotte's core purpose is to transform the commercial estate industry by accelerating the advancement of women? One of the many ways we accomplish this is through professional development opportunities. So we're thrilled to announce the return of our Authentic Leadership Program.

A collaborative effort between KPMG, ATHENA International and CREW Charlotte, the program is based on the ATHENA Leadership Model that identifies eight distinct attributes reflective of women's contributions to leadership: living authentically, learning constantly, advocating and celebrating.

The program will kick off in January 2019 with an opening retreat and will include 5 sessions, a few of which will be double sessions. It will conclude with a celebratory graduation ceremony in May. Feedback from our first graduating class was used to build upon the success of our inaugural program and improve the offerings for 2019. In addition to a slight name change, the program will be hosted on Thursdays instead of Fridays and will be held at Northeastern University Charlotte, our 2018 education partner and gold sponsor. One aspect that will not change is that Sharon Reed is returning as Program Director. She, along with our Leadership Program committee, have planned an incredible curriculum that includes thought-provoking topics, useful development tools and some of our region's most influential women as guest lecturers. No matter where you are on your journey of self-discovery and leadership evolution, this program is for you!

The program is open to CREW Charlotte members and nonmembers alike. If you're interested in becoming a participant in AL Class 2 or would like to learn more about the program, please reach out to current Authentic Leadership Program co-chairs, Molly Carroll (Trinity Partners) and Sara Whitten (Shiel Sexton). But don't delay - the application process is open and class size is limited!
