From the President

Charlotte is definitely a basketball town, which couldn't be more evident than during the month of March. But for CREW Charlotte, March Madness isn't just about basketball.

Tonight, we'll host our 12th annual Casino & Gaming

Night, which is one of two fundraisers we organize annually to support future leaders in commercial real estate. Money raised at this event benefits undergraduate and graduate students pursuing degrees that could lead to jobs in CRE.

Since 2006, CREW Charlotte has donated close to $100,000 in scholarship funds through partnerships with UNC-Charlotte and Queens University of Charlotte. These funds were awarded to 20 local students. In addition, we've donated over $65,000 to CREW Network Foundation, the philanthropic arm of CREW
