Holly Alexander Announced as New South's Top Producer of 2019!

Charlotte, North Carolina – January 28, 2020 - The deals have been counted and New South Properties of the Carolinas is proud to announce Holly Alexander as the company's Top Producer of 2019! This is a ground-breaking and well-earned achievement as Holly is the first female to ever hold the title of Top Producer in the twenty-five-year history of the company. Holly has over twenty years' experience in the general contracting and commercial real estate industry. She specializes in office, light industrial, and land acquisitions, dispositions, and leasing in North and South Carolina, working with clients such as Terracon Consultants, BNI, Grubb Properties, Spangler Restoration, Primero, and Bass, Dunklin, McCullough & Smith, PLLC to name a few. Founding partner Will Whitley says this about Holly, "The keys to her success are her ability to achieve positive outcomes when others might give up and the willingness to always go the extra mile for her clients. She values relationships more than a single transaction. Holly isn't satisfied until she reaches the best outcome for her client." New South Properties congratulates Holly Alexander on this incredible milestone and looks forward to her future success in 2020!
