NewDominion Bank Appoints Treasury Sales Officer & Commercial Real Estate Expert

-- The New Teammates are Experts in Their Field and are Equipped to Make NewDominion's Commercial Portfolio Thrive --

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (January 27, 2017) – NewDominion Bank appoints two industry experts to the NewDominion team, effective immediately. Rebecca “Becky” Berolatti will serve as NewDominion’s Treasury Sales Officer and Sallie Jarosz will serve as a Senior Commercial Relationship Manager specializing in Commercial Real Estate.

Becky Berolatti comes to NewDominion from a $2.8 billion dollar bank in Charlotte, NC, where she helped establish a new branch location and secured local deposits totaling over $25 million dollars. Berolatti has a distinguished management background in the Commercial Treasury Services area and is exceptionally experienced in providing banking solutions that increase efficiencies for businesses with complex banking needs. In her new role, Berolatti will be responsible for developing new deposit and treasury relationships while working with new and current clients on optimizing cash resources and managing financial and transaction risk.

“I joined NewDominion because I was drawn to the passion the Executive Management has for the Bank, its teammates, shareholders and most importantly, its clients who are at the forefront of decisions made on a daily basis,” said Berolatti. “Banking is constantly evolving. My goal is to work with my teammates to provide the best service and products for our clients, while keeping NewDominion’s processes compliant and efficient.”

Berolatti is a graduate of Elon University with a Bachelor of Science in business administration and marketing. She resides in the Cotswold neighborhood of Charlotte, NC with her husband PJ, and her two children, Jack and Lola.

Sallie Jarosz joined the NewDominion Team from a $2.8 billion dollar bank headquartered in Asheville, NC where she spearheaded Commercial Real Estate financing and brand building for the Western North Carolina region. Jarosz is a multi-award winning commercial real estate expert with 23 years of experience. Her expertise has been utilized in various capacities, including management roles and team development. In her new position, Jarosz will be focusing on commercial real estate financing for clients and building NewDominion’s commercial real estate and commercial deposit portfolio, including treasury services.

“I’m extremely excited to be an integral part of NewDominion’s growth journey. I admire the innovative leadership at NewDominion that has strengthened the new brand, creating a collaborative, relationship-focused approach to clients, teammates, as well as the community. The pursuit of excellence will enable us to thrive and evolve,” said Jarosz. “My passion and goal is to improve the client experience through an authentic and meaningful approach to doing business with NewDominion. The more “handcrafted” the approach, the more NewDominion will be able to cultivate new relationships while securing the valued clients the Bank currently has.”

Jarosz is a graduate of University of North Carolina Charlotte with a Bachelor of Arts in English. She sits on the Board of Directors for CREW (Commercial Real Estate Women) where she is also a Network Delegate and Chair for the Network Committee. She and her husband, Jeff, reside in South Charlotte, NC and have four children, Jessica, Jordan, Samantha, and Gus.

“I am honored that Becky and Sallie have joined the NewDominion team. They add a great deal of client centric experience,” said NewDominion President Tim Ignasher. “Our areas of treasury service and commercial real estate are greatly enhanced with the addition of them to our team.”
